The 103rd Exhibition 2014 Jury Results

Thank you to all artists who have participated in our 2014 Exhibition.

The quality of the works submitted was very high, and challenging for the jurors. The diversity of style and media were equally impressive and a wonderful tribute to the vitality of our artistic community.

The selection of artwork for the competition is now complete.

Opening Reception & Awards:

Thursday, June 26, from 6 to 8 PM.

Jurors of Selection and Awards

- William Butcher:

Juror William Butcher has taught painting and sculpture for thirty years and is currently head of the Art Department at Suffield Academy in CT. His work has received numerous top awards including several solo exhibitions throughout the Eastern and Midwest United States.

Mr. Butcher is a master at portraying emotional and spiritual content as visual compositions. In his paintings he explores space, light and subject matter as metaphors in a dialog. williambutcher.com
